Service Opportunities

Do you feel God calling you to serve? Do you see a need, or are searching for a need, that you can meet? There are many opportunities to serve within our fellowship.

We need people of all ages and talents to join us in serving God, each other, and the lost. This service takes many different forms; all of them of the greatest importance.

Talk with one of the Elders or Josh to see where your special talents and gifts can be used to benefit others and further the Kingdom of God.

CCC is in charge of the Student Meal on October 1st. If you would like to help in any way by preparing food or serving, please see Connie Allomong. All help is very much appreciated.

Many can be done by single individuals. If you would like to help with these tasks please talk to one of the deacons to get information on the jobs that need done.
